

Liberian GEMAP Expert Gets Clinton's Recognition

The only Liberia member of the USAID Funded government Financial Management Program, Gemap Alexander Cuffy has received praises From the United States top diplomat for his role in helping transform The Nation's leading International entry Point, The Roberts International Airport.

During her Final Moments in Liberia United States Secretary of State, Hilary Rodham Clinton on August 13, described Mr.

US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton requests Alex Cuffy help to cut ribbon at RIA

Cuffy's involvement with the RIA reform team as worthwhile.

At colorful ceremony at the RIA that set the tone for the US Funded re-vamping of the airport, Secretary of State Clinton called on Mr. Cuffy to join her and cut the ribbon to the Airport Project. "Lets do it" admits cheers.

In a Speech at the National Legislature Madam Clinton announced that the 4 million dollars project by the United States is geared towards shifting the arena to accommodate major international carriers including those from the United States.

Cont'd. p6

GEMAP

The Gemap Comptroller posted at the RIA was crucial in proposing the project, coordinating the procurement and delivery of the equipment that will pioneered the US Funded RIA revitalization.

The only Liberia member of the USAID Funded government Financial Management Program, Gemap Alexander Cuffy has received praises From the United States top diplomat for his role in helping transform The Nation's leading International entry Point, The Roberts International Airport.

Alexander Cuffy is a 1990 graduate of the University of Liberia, he also holds dual master in Business Management from the University of Minnesota and has worked for big Name Auditing Firms across West Africa and the United The United States Including Price Water House and was recruited in the United States.

He described the Interaction with the U.S. Secretary of State as unique and sounded his commitment to remain dedicated to